

City of Houston Pathways Internship Program

The City of Houston Human Resources Department is pleased to announce the Pathways College Internship Program. Applications are due Nov. 1 - Nov. 22.

The Pathways College Internship program:

- enables students to explore career possibilities, gain experience, develop marketable skills and establish professional connections. In some cases, an internship can even lead to a great job;
- is unpaid, but may count towards course credit if approved by the college or university;
- offers a flexible schedule with shifts from 8 hours to 40 hours per week.

Applicants must:

- be enrolled in or be a recent graduate of a college or university;
- complete an application;
- commit to work on a project that is closely related to course work;
- commit to work a minimum of 8 hours a week per semester;
- provide proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Selection Process

Candidates who meet the minimum qualifications may be referred to the department(s) with internships relevant to a candidate's area of interest. Candidates will be notified by email. Bring a reference list, a writing sample, if available, should you be invited to interview.
